Objective

The course objective is for the student to master, at an advanced level, the role of the instrumentalist in regard to both knowledge and skills. This includes conceiving and realizing, in a well-founded way, independent artistic ideas within an assigned time frame, as well as developing the necessary technique, repertoire and skills to express these ideas on the student's instrument (including voice). A second course objective is to enable the student to acquire a well-developed familiarity with contemporary music notation.

This course is a part of the Bachelor's Programme in Music, with a specialization in Classical Music (KKKK2).

Content

The course includes:

- vocal or instrumental studies appropriate to the student's level, experience, and interpretative and technical needs, focusing on repertoire that is stylistically and historically diverse,
- as appropriate, second instrument studies,
- repertoire study/interpretation,
- seminars and practical exercises in oral and written artistic reflection, including gender equality and non-discrimination considerations as well as other ethical considerations,
- for singers, studies in piano as a second instrument.

Intended learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the student is expected to:

Knowledge and understanding

- demonstrate an advanced knowledge of their instrument's repertoire and its styles,

Competence and skills

- demonstrate advanced skills including vocal ability or technical ability on their main instrument,
- demonstrate an advanced ability to study repertoire independently and perform agreed-upon pieces within assigned time frames,
- demonstrate a well-developed ability to dialogue and cooperate with other musicians,

Judgement and approach

- show advanced knowledge and understanding of the role and possibilities of classical music in different contexts, taking account of gender equality, non-discrimination and other ethical concerns,
- in an independent way, critically analyze and improve their own singing/playing in a broader context,
- demonstrate a well-founded ability to reflect upon their own artistic approach and the artistic approaches of others.
